

Still caring lunch club

Organised by carers for carers of a person with dementia,
with support from the Dementia Carers' Support Service
and dementiaCOMPASS

An opportunity for carers to meet with other carers in the dementia community whilst keeping current with the resources available. This is for carers who are:

- caring at home
- caring at a distance
- caring for a relative in a residential home or
- who have recently lost someone who had dementia.

Second Wednesday of every month

	10 July
13 February	14 August
13 March	11 September
10 April	9 October
8 May	13 November
12 June	11 December

12:30 for 1pm
The Six Bells Pub
9 High Street, Fulbourn CB21 5DH

£9

Two course meal followed by a short talk by local speaker.
Bookings essential, three days before lunch.

For more information, please see dementiacompass.com/stillcaring, email Edye@dementiaCOMPASS.com or Sally.Kitchin@cpft.nhs.uk, or alternatively you can ring 07876 350 638.

Published 20 February 2013

Still caring lunch club

March Meeting

"Improvements in Hospital Care for Patients with Dementia"

An interview with

Dr. Claire Nicholl

Consultant Physician

Department of Medicine for the Elderly (DME)

Addenbrooke's Hospital

Advance questions welcome, please forward to edye@dementiacompass.com

Bookings essential, see opposite.

Organised by carers for carers of a person with dementia,
with support from the Dementia Carers' Support Service
and dementiaCOMPASS

Published 20 February 2013